COUNCIL FOR LEATHER EXPORTS

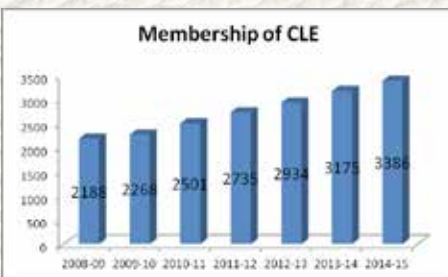

About Council for Leather Exports

The Council for Leather Exports (popularly known as CLE) set up in July 1984, is an autonomous non-profit Export Promotion Council (EPC) under Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India. .

Council for Leather Exports is the doorway for the exporters of leather and leather products in India. CLE caters to the needs of the exporters in extending their global reach and thereby increase their exports. CLE serves as a connecting bridge between Indian leather exporters and buyers all over the world on one hand and between the Industry and the Government on the other hand.

Besides its core areas of functioning namely market development and export promotion, market research and policy & procedures, CLE has also diversified into areas like infrastructure development and skill development too. On account of the proactive role, the Council's membership strength has been showing a positive growth since the past 4 years with the number of members increasing from 2188 in 2008-09 to 2934 in 2012-13 and has crossed the 3350 mark during 2014-15.

Membership in Council for Leather Exports

Those persons, Hindu Undivided Family (HUF), Firms, Joint Stock Companies, Co-operative Societies or Corporations can become a Member of the Council as per Memorandum of Association & Articles of Association (AoA) of CLE.

Registration-cum-Membership Certificate (RCMC)

The Registration-cum-Membership Certificate is issued to an exporter after he becomes the member of CLE. The validity of RCMC is five years which is subject to the renewal of membership every year.

Categories of Members

CLE offers two types of membership to exporters based on their previous year's export performance, as detailed below.

- 1. Associate Members : FOB value of exports below Rs. 15 lakh
- 2. Ordinary Members : FOB value of exports above Rs. 15 lakh
