MESSAGE

The European Union is a major market for Indian Footwear, with the EU having a share of 70.81% in Indian Footwear exports during 2012-13. Amongst European Countries, Italy is a major importer of footwear with a share of 12.19% and also, India had a share of close to 3% in Italy's total footwear imports during 2011. Despite the uncertain economic situation in several EU countries, Italy with its unique standing as the leather and design capital of the world, offers a multiplicity of opportunities for Indian Leather & Footwear businesses.

Towards consolidating our position as a significant supplier of footwear to EU and to Italy in particular, the Council for Leather Exports has been regularly organizing participation of Indian footwear exporters in the bi-annual Expo Riva Schuh Fair, held in Riva Del Garda, Italy, which is the most popular global footwear fair in the medium-priced category. The strength of the Council's participation in this Fair, has been continuously increasing from a mere 4 companies in the year 1998, to between 79 to 80 companies in recent editions. The Organizers of the Fair, i.e. Riva del Garda Fierecongressi and the Council for Leather Exports are also collaborating on the Expo Riva Schuh India Fair for Footwear & Leather Accessories, New Delhi, which was launched three years ago.

In the historic 80th edition of the Expo Riva Schuh Schuh Garda Fair June 15-18, 2013, the Council will be organizing a CLE India Pavilion with 70 Indian participating companies in a total area of 1209 sq.mts approximately. In keeping with the strong partnership between Expo Riva and the Council for Leather Exports, the entire Hall A3 has been dedicated to CLE India. The construction of stands is being undertaken by the fair organizer with the Pavilion designed by a leading Italian design & construction firm. Besides there would be focused publicity for the new CLE India Pavilion at vantage locations in the Exhibition premises. Most importantly the Fair Organizers have constructed a temporary sky-walk connecting the main exhibiting Halls to Hall A3 where the CLE Pavilion is located, for the convenience of buyers & visitors thus ensuring there would be adequate footfalls in our pavilion..

I am confident that with all these special initiatives undertaken jointly by the Council and the Riva del Garda Fierecongressi, there will be a considerable number of business opportunities for our member-companies participating in the Expo Riva Schuh, June 2013 edition.

It is my earnest hope that this Fair will provide optimal results in terms of business prospects and orders, to all our Indian participants.

My best wishes to all our member-participants in the 80th Expo Riva Schuh Garda Fair.

Rajendra K.Jalan
Chairman
Council for Leather Exports

Indian Footwear Industry – A Status Note

The footwear sector is a very significant segment of the leather industry in India; rather it is the 'Engine of Growth' for the entire Indian leather industry.

India is the second largest global producer of footwear after China, accounting for 13% of global footwear production of 16 billion pairs. India produces 2065 million pairs of different categories of footwear (leather footwear - 909 million pairs, leather shoe uppers - 100 million pairs and non-leather footwear - 1056 million pairs). India exports about 115 million pairs. Thus, nearly 95% of its production goes to meet its own domestic demand.

The major production centers in India are Chennai, Ranipet, Ambur in Tamil Nadu, Mumbai in Maharashtra, Kanpur in U.P., Jalandhar in Punjab, Agra, Delhi, Karnal, Ludhiana, Sonapat, Faridabad, Pune, Kolkata, Calicut and Ernakulam. About 1.10 million are engaged in the footwear manufacturing industry.

Footwear exported from India are Dress Shoes, Casuals, Moccasins, Sport Shoes, Horrachies, Sandals, Ballerinas, Boots, Sandals and Chappals/Flip Flops made of rubber, plastic, P.V.C. and other materials.

Major international footwear brands have been sourcing from India for decades, and besides scores of multinational brands are sold in India. There are also a number of upcoming Indian footwear brands, even as the Indian retail market, is seeing remarkable growth

Aldo, Bally, Clarks, Ecco, Florshiem, Ferragamo, Hush Puppies, Lee cooper, Lloyd, Marks & Spencer, Nike, Nine West, New Balance, Reebok, Rockport, Stacy Adams, Tod's, Geox, Louis Vuitton, Bata	Red Tape, Liberty, Khadims, Lakhani, Metro, Action

The Footwear sector is now de-licensed and de-reserved, paving the way for expansion of capacities on modern lines with state-of-the-art machinery. To further assist this process, the Government has permitted 100% Foreign Direct Investment through the automatic route for the footwear sector. Besides, the Government of India is setting up dedicated Footwear Complex and Footwear Components Parks where footwear clusters are located.

There has been active interest in collaborating with Indian Footwear companies from European countries like Italy, Spain and Portugal.

Indian Footwear Industry poised for growth

India has state-of-the-art manufacturing plants. The footwear sector has matured from the level of manual footwear manufacturing method to the automated footwear manufacturing systems. Footwear production units are installed with world class machines. Manned by skilled technicians, these machines help to turn any new innovative idea into reality. Support systems created for the sector have indeed served the footwear industry well. India has a well developed Footwear Component manufacturing industry. The future growth of the footwear industry in India will continue to be market-driven, and oriented towards EU and US markets. With technology and quality of the footwear improving year after year, Indian Footwear industry is stamping its class and expertise in the global footwear trade.

Keeping in view its past performance, current trends in global trade, the industry's inherent strengths and growth prospects, the footwear industry aims to augment production, thereby enhancing its exports from the current level of US$ 2.07 billion.
